CONFERENCE OF RADIATION CONTROL PROGRAM DIRECTORS, INC.
Bylaws

Article I - Officers

The officers of the CRCPD shall be:

- a. the Chairperson,
- b. the Chairperson-Elect,
- c. the Past Chairperson,
- d. the Treasurer, and
- e. three (3) Members-at-Large.

Article II - Board of Directors

- Section 1. The affairs of the CRCPD shall be managed by a Board of Directors (hereinafter called the Board).
- Section 2. Each of the officers of the CRCPD shall be ex officio members of the Board.
- Section 3. The Board shall establish the policy and administrative procedures under which the CRCPD shall function.
- Section 4. The Board may schedule meetings when the interests and business of the CRCPD indicate the necessity thereof, provided the members of the Board can make suitable arrangements to attend such meetings. Any official action taken by the Board shall be based on a majority vote of the members of the Board.
- Section 5. The Board, upon recommendation from the Chairperson, shall have the authority to appoint a replacement for any officer who resigns, dies, becomes ineligible or becomes incapacitated during a term of office. Such appointment shall be valid until the next regular election of officers at which time the vacancy will be filled by regular election of the membership.
- Section 6. The Board may authorize the formation of such working groups¹ as may be advantageous to the purposes of the CRCPD.
- Section 7. The Board shall approve the budget for the CRCPD.

¹The term "working group" refers to a committee, task force, commission, etc.

Article III - Membership

Section 1. There shall be eight (8) classes of membership. These classes shall be:

- a. Voting Members,
- b. Associate Members,
- c. Emeritus Members,
- d. International Members,
- e. Affiliate Members,
- f. Honorary Members,
- g. Academic Members, and
- h. State/Local Agency Members.

Section 2. Eligibility of a governmental entity to have a "Member Class" shall be determined by a vote of the Members. The "Member Class," as of January 1, 1990, which has been extended to a governmental entity is considered to be effective and valid. A determination of eligibility shall be conducted prior to the admission of any new governmental entity desiring to have a "Member Class" within that entity, and prior to the termination of any existing governmental entity having a "Member Class."

Recommendation for eligibility to have a "Member Class" within a governmental entity shall not be arbitrary, but shall be based on established written criteria. To be eligible, all established criteria shall be met.

Section 3. Eligibility of an individual who has applied for membership into any class of membership shall be determined by a majority vote of the Board.

Section 4. The classes of membership shall have the following qualifications and privileges:

a. Members shall:

1. be the director of the radiation control program of a state, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico or an entity satisfying the requirement established in Article III, Section 2.,
2. be eligible to serve as an officer of the CRCPD,
3. be eligible to vote, subject to the provisions of Article VI,
4. be eligible to serve on CRCPD working groups,
5. receive the CRCPD Newsbrief, and
6. for any issue requiring the vote of the membership, may delegate to another Member or an Associate Member, by written proxy, all of the Member's rights and privileges.

b. Associate Members shall:

1. be employed in a radiation control program of a state, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico or an entity satisfying the requirement established in Article III, Section 2.,
2. be eligible to vote for election of officers, subject to the provisions of Article VI and VII,
3. be eligible to serve as an officer of the CRCPD,
4. be eligible to serve on CRCPD working groups,

5. receive the CRCPD Newsbrief, and
 6. participate in CRCPD business through caucuses with the Member and other program staff, if practical, and be eligible to vote as written proxy for a Member.
- c. Emeritus Members shall:
1. having been at one time a member in any other membership class of the CRCPD and upon being nominated by any member of the CRCPD for Emeritus membership, and upon approval by the Board, be so designated for outstanding service in the field of radiation protection,
 2. be eligible to serve on CRCPD working groups,
 3. receive the CRCPD Newsbrief,
 4. not be eligible to vote, and
 5. not be eligible to serve as an officer of the CRCPD.
- (Grandfathering Clause)* - All persons having Emeritus membership prior to May 1, 1990 shall retain their status as Emeritus Members.
- d. International Members shall:
1. upon making application be designated International Membership status upon approval by the Board, if employed in a radiation control program which lies outside the United States of America, or a United States territory,
 2. receive the CRCPD Newsbrief,
 3. be eligible to serve on CRCPD working groups,
 4. not be eligible to vote, and
 5. not be eligible to serve as an officer of the CRCPD, and
- e. Affiliate Members shall:
1. be any person associated with the business of CRCPD and desiring to belong to the CRCPD. Examples of members in this class are: former members, employees of federal agency radiation programs, employees of Indian Tribe radiation programs, employees of licensed facilities, and employees of non-Commonwealth territory radiation programs, etc.,
 2. be eligible to serve on CRCPD working groups,
 3. receive the CRCPD Newsbrief,
 4. not be eligible to vote, and
 5. not be eligible to serve as an officer of the CRCPD.
- f. Honorary Members shall:
1. having distinguished themselves in the field of radiation protection and given honor to that profession, and upon being nominated for Honorary membership and approved by the Board, be so designated as an Honorary Member for outstanding service,
 2. be eligible to serve on CRCPD working groups,
 3. receive the CRCPD Newsbrief,
 4. not be eligible to vote, and
 5. not be eligible to serve as an officer of the CRCPD.

- g. Academic Members shall:
 - 1. represent colleges and universities and other research related institutions in investigating new science and advancing radiation protection,
 - 2. be eligible to serve on CRCPD working groups,
 - 3. receive the CRCPD Newsbrief,
 - 4. be members of, and be invited to attend meetings of, the CRCPD Radiation Protection Advisory Council.
- h. State/Local Agency Members shall:
 - 1. be those agencies that meet the criteria as specified in Article III, Section 2, and
 - 2. have, for all radiation control staff, the privileges as specified by Article III, Sections 4a and 4b.

Article IV - Terms of Office and Duties of Officers

 - 5. submit annually the financial record of the CRCPD for audit to a firm designated by the Board,
 - 6. submit a detailed report of the financial condition of the CRCPD at the Annual Meeting,
 - 7. submit an accounting of receipts and disbursements at each Board meeting and on the date of retirement as Treasurer,
 - 8. be Chairperson of the Finance Committee,
 - 9. provide, under written agreement with the Executive Director, supervision of all financial matters relating to the Fiscal Officer,
 - 10. in the absence of a Fiscal Officer, the Treasurer shall provide for the performance of the duties of the Fiscal Officer,
 - 11. be responsible for authenticating records of the corporation, and
 - 12. be responsible for maintaining a written history of the CRCPD.
- e. The Members-at-Large shall accept such duties as may be assigned by the Chairperson.
- f. The duties specified in this Section may be delegated to subordinates, other officers, or the Executive Director upon approval by the Board.

Article V - Executive Director

Section 1. The Board may appoint an Executive Director pursuant to the terms of a written agreement.

Section 2. The agreement shall be for a term of three (3) years. The agreement shall be reviewed each year and may be amended or terminated subsequent to each review.

Section 3. The Executive Director shall:

- a. keep a record of the proceedings of the CRCPD and of the Board,
- b. keep a list of all members, and purge from such list at the end of the Annual Meeting those members of any class who are delinquent in their dues,
- c. issue notices of all meetings and conduct correspondence pertaining to the affairs of the CRCPD,
- d. notify all working group members and chairpersons of their appointment as soon as possible after such appointments are made,

- q. publish the Profile on State and Local Radiological Health Programs,
- r. publish the Directory of Personnel Responsible for Radiological Health Programs, and
- s. publish the Suggested State Regulations for Control of Radiation; Ionizing and Nonionizing.

Article VI - Voting

Section 1. Except as provided in Section 2 below, the vote of the CRCPD shall lie with the individuals in the class of membership called "Members."

- a. Each state, the District of Columbia, and Puerto Rico shall be eligible to cast a single vote on each question or motion placed before the CRCPD.
- b. Members and Associate Members within a given state, the District of Columbia and Puerto Rico should, if it is practical, caucus to determine whether or not a vote shall be cast, and if a vote is to be cast, what that vote shall be. In any case, the final vote shall lie with the Member.
- c. If the responsibility for radiation control is shared by more than one governmental entity within a state, the District of Columbia, or Puerto Rico, such entities shall, if practical, confer or caucus and determine whether or not a vote shall be cast and, if a vote is to be cast, what the vote shall be.
- d. Fractional votes shall not be permitted.
- e. With the exception of election of officers, all questions and motions presented at any annual or special meeting, shall be determined by a majority of the votes cast by Members eligible to vote, subject to the conditions of the above Subsections a., b., c., and d., and Section 3. of Article VI of the Constitution.

Section 2. Both Members and Associate Members shall be entitled to vote for election of officers.

Section 3. Quorum²

- a. Except for election of officers, no question, nor action of any kind, which requires the vote of the "Members," either at the Annual Meeting or a special called meeting shall be voted upon unless fifty-one (51) percent of those Members eligible to vote, or their proxies, are present.
- b. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the election of officers shall be determined by a majority of the votes cast by Members and Associate Members eligible to vote, subject to the above conditions of Section 1, Subsections a. through e.

Article VII - Elections of Officers

Section 1. Prior to each Annual Meeting there shall be elected a Chairperson-Elect and a Member-at-Large.

Section 2. Prior to every third Annual Meeting, beginning with the Annual Meeting held in 1986, a Treasurer shall be elected. The term shall begin on July 1 following his/her election.

Section 3. Election shall be by letter ballot.

Section 4. Not later than thirty (30) days prior to the Annual Business Meeting, the Executive Director shall send to each Member and Associate Member a letter ballot with the list of offices to be filled and the list of candidates for each office.

Section 5. Those elected to office shall not assume the prerogatives of office until the close of the Annual Meeting at which they are elected except for the Treasurer, whose term is specified in Section 2.

Section 6. Officers may not serve successive full terms in the same office.

Article VIII - Working Groups

Section 1. Upon approval by the Board, the Chairperson shall appoint members and chairpersons of all working groups whose appointment is not otherwise specified in these Bylaws.

²The Articles of Incorporation allow for the election of officers by mail ballot, and do does not require a quorum of the membership.

- Section 2. All members of working groups shall hold membership in the CRCPD.
- Section 3. All appointments to working groups shall be approved by the Board.
- Section 4. The following shall be standing committees of the CRCPD:
- a. Nominating Committee
 1. The Nominating Committee shall consist of the Past Chairperson, the Chairperson-Elect, and the most immediate former Chairperson. The Past Chairperson shall chair the Nominating Committee.
 2. The Nominating Committee shall, no later than three (3) months preceding the next Annual Meeting, submit at least two (2) nominees for each office to be filled to the Board.
 3. No member shall be nominated for office without his/her consent.
 - b. Program Committee
 1. The Program Committee shall consist of the Chairperson, the Past Chairperson, and other persons who may be appointed by the Chairperson. The Executive Director, or his/her designee, shall serve as an ex officio member of this committee. The Past Chairperson of the CRCPD shall chair the Program Committee.
 2. The Committee shall prepare the program for the Annual Meeting.
 - c. Membership Committee
 1. The Membership Committee shall consist of the Past Chairperson, the Chairperson-Elect, and a Member-at-Large, who shall be appointed by the current Chairperson. The Past Chairperson of the CRCPD shall chair the Membership Committee.
 2. The Membership Committee shall determine the eligibility of any prospective member.
 - d. Finance Committee
 1. The Finance Committee shall consist of the Past Chairperson, the Chairperson-Elect, and the Treasurer. The Executive Director and the Fiscal Officer shall serve as ex officio members of this committee. The Treasurer shall chair the Finance Committee.
 2. The Executive Director shall prepare the proposed annual budget for submission to the Finance Committee.
 3. The Finance Committee shall review, and amend if appropriate, the proposed annual budget, for final submission to the Board.
 - e. Other Committees

Notwithstanding the committees required under these Bylaws, the Chairperson may appoint other committees as may be necessary to expedite the work of the CRCPD.

- Section 5. The Board, by resolution, may establish other standing committees as may be necessary to expedite the work of CRCPD, each of which shall have at least two members from the Board.

Article IX - Dues

- Section 1. The Board shall determine the amount of the annual membership dues for each class of membership.
- Section 2. Members of any class who have not paid their dues prior to March 1 shall be stricken from the membership list of the CRCPD.

Article X - Meetings

- Section 1. The CRCPD shall hold an Annual Business Meeting for all Members eligible to vote at a time and place to be determined by the Board. The Annual Business Meeting may be held in or out of the State of Kentucky. Regardless of the location, all Members eligible to vote shall be notified, in writing, of the place, day and hour of such meetings not less than thirty (30) days prior to the date of the meeting.

Special meetings of the Members may be called by the Chairperson or by the Board. Special meetings may also be called by a written petition to the Chairperson signed by ten Members eligible to vote. Any special meeting, may be held in or out of the State of Kentucky.

- Section 2. All official meetings, including meetings of CRCPD working groups, that are solely under the sponsorship of the CRCPD, shall be open meetings. However, if it has been determined that regulatory enforcement matters or other sensitive issues are to be discussed at a meeting sponsored by the CRCPD, and that restricted attendance to such meetings would be in the best interest of the organization, then the CRCPD may hold closed meetings. It shall be the responsibility of the Board of Directors to determine when restricted attendance to meetings should be applied.

- Section 3. The meetings of the CRCPD shall be conducted in accordance with the latest edition of Robert's Rules of Order or such other rules of procedure as may be adopted by the CRCPD. The Chairperson shall appoint one of the Board members as the parliamentarian for the CRCPD, who shall serve in this capacity for all business and board meetings.

- Section 4. No business shall be conducted at any meeting unless a majority of the Members eligible to vote, or represented by written proxy, are present.

Article XI - Fiscal Officer

- Section 1. The Board may employ a Fiscal Officer to conduct the day-to-day financial affairs of the CRCPD.

- Section 2. The Fiscal Officer shall:
- a. receive monies due the CRCPD, giving receipts thereof, and recording the amount of each payment with the name,
 - b. furnish bond to the CRCPD in the amount determined by the Board, the expense of such bond to be paid by the CRCPD,
 - c. disburse funds pursuant to the approved budget(s) of the CRCPD,
 - d. serve as ex officio member of the Finance Committee,
 - e. assist the Treasurer and the Executive Director in preparing budgets for grant applications and for the CRCPD, and in preparing financial reports,
 - f. prepare and submit to the Treasurer a monthly accounting of receipts and disbursements,
 - g. maintain an inventory of CRCPD property,
 - h. submit annually, on behalf of the Treasurer, the financial records of the CRCPD for audit to a firm approved by the Board,
 - i. submit requests for reimbursement and advance payments from appropriate federal agencies, and
 - j. perform such other duties as may be delegated by the Treasurer and/or the Executive Director.

Article XII - Amendments

- Section 1. These Bylaws may be amended from time to time to better serve the purposes of the CRCPD. Amendments may be proposed upon the initiative of the Board or by a petition signed by five Members who are eligible to vote.
- Section 2. All provisions of these Bylaws shall be subject to amendment by the affirmative vote of a majority of those Members eligible to vote, given at the Annual Meeting or at any special meeting, provided that notice of the proposed amendment is included in the notice of such meeting, subject to the conditions stated in Article X, Section I.

CRITERIA FOR DETERMINATION OF
"MEMBER CLASS" INTO THE CRCPD, WITH VOTING PRIVILEGES

Criteria #1:

Be designated directly by state statute, or Executive Order through appropriate legislative authority (or by authority of the District of Columbia or Puerto Rico), as a primary governmental entity having responsibility for radiation health and safety. In the event that such legislative authority allows the primary governmental entity to delegate radiation health and safety responsibility to sub-entities, such sub-entities shall not have voting privileges within the CRCPD. Only the primary governmental entity shall have voting privileges.

Criteria #2:

Have authority, responsibility, and an active program in two or more of the following areas:

1. X-Ray registration/licensing and control.
2. Radioactive materials registration/licensing and control.
3. Environmental radiation monitoring.
4. Indoor radon contamination control.
5. Radiation emergency planning and response.
6. Nonionizing radiation control.
7. Low-level radioactive waste regulatory authority.
8. Radiologic Technologist licensure and certification.
9. Mammography.

Criteria #3:

In the event that a primary governmental entity has legislative authority and responsibility for two or more radiation control areas, as identified under Criteria #2, but which has assigned primary responsibility to different sub-entities of the governmental entity, then the primary governmental entity shall determine which sub-entity it desires to have voting privileges within the CRCPD.
