Dear Madame/Sir,

Federal Asian Pacific American Council (FAPAC) is an inter-agency organization of Asian Pacific Americans (APAs) employed by the Federal and District of Columbia (DC) Governments. The organization represents over 120,000 APA civilian employees and military personnel in all Federal agencies and the DC Government. FAPAC members reside in all states as well as U. S. territories and several foreign countries. FAPAC has been a nationally recognized organization since 1985. It pursues APA interests in the Federal and DC governments, promotes cultural diversity, and provides a bridge between APA employees and Federal management.

FAPAC is soliciting nominations for the 2001 FAPAC Outstanding Agency Awards from each Federal Executive Department/Agency and the government of District Columbia. The purpose of this award program is to recognize Departments/Agencies that have made significant contributions to the advancement of APAs and promoted equal opportunity in both the APA Federal work force and the APA community. The period of performance was for the 2000 calendar year.

The award criteria are:

1. Demonstrate outstanding leadership through bold and innovative approaches (i.e., through partnership agreement) in promoting EEO and Affirmative Action.
2. Demonstrate excellent achievement in APA representation at all levels as compared to Civilian Labor Force.
3. Demonstrate diversity excellence through a remarkable progress towards diversity against all odds.

The Award ceremony will be held at FAPAC Annual Congressional Seminar and National Leadership Training Conference during the luncheon on Wednesday May 9, 2001 at the DoubleTree Hotel at Pentagon City/National Airport, Arlington, Virginia.

Please send your nomination to FAPAC, P.O. Box 23184, Washington, D.C. 20026-3184 or via fax to (703) 704-3412. All nominations shall be received on or before March 31, 2001. All winners will be notified no later than April 21, 2001 followed by formal invitation to the award ceremony.

If you need more information, please feel free to contact Mr. Charles Fan at (202) 645-0750 or me at (301) 301) 286-4358.

Thank you for your continued support. We look forward to receiving your nomination soon.

Sincerely,

Mike Maroof
Chair
