NRC Review of EMF-2361(P) Revision 0, EXEM BWR-2000 ECCS Evaluation Model

Ref.: 1. Letter, James F. Mallay (SPC) to Document Control Desk (NRC), "Request for Review of EMF-2361(P) Revision 0, EXEM BWR-2000 ECCS Evaluation Model," NRC:00:045, November 7, 2000.

Framatome ANP Richland, Inc. (formerly Siemens Power Corporation) submitted a topical report for NRC review and approval in Reference 1. The methodology described in the topical report is for the performance of LOCA analyses for BWRs. In support of this submittal, Framatome ANP Richland, Inc. is providing with this letter a CD containing the codes RELAX, PREHUXY, and HUXY as well as selected test cases. The CD also contains: (a) additional codes and files necessary to execute the test cases; (b) users manuals for the main codes; and (c) a description of the contents of the CD, instructions for copying the information from the CD, and directions for executing the test cases. The CD has been provided directly to N. Kalyanam.

Framatome ANP Richland, Inc. considers the enclosed CD to be proprietary. As required by 10 CFR 2.790(b), an affidavit is enclosed to support the withholding of this information from public disclosure.

Very truly yours,

AFFIDAVIT

STATE OF WASHINGTON)
) ss.
COUNTY OF BENTON)

1. My name is James F. Mallay. I am Director, Regulatory Affairs, for Framatome ANP Richland, Inc. ("FRA-ANP"), and as such I am authorized to execute this Affidavit.

2. I am familiar with the criteria applied by FRA-ANP to determine whether certain FRA-ANP information is proprietary. I am familiar with the policies established by FRA-ANP to ensure the proper application of these criteria.

3. I am familiar with the FRA-ANP information transmitted by letter NRC:01:012 and referred to herein as "Document." Information contained in this Document has been classified by FRA-ANP as proprietary in accordance with the policies established by FRA-ANP for the control and protection of proprietary and confidential information.

4. This Document contains information of a proprietary and confidential nature and is of the type customarily held in confidence by FRA-ANP and not made available to the public. Based on my experience, I am aware that other companies regard information of the kind contained in this Document as proprietary and confidential.

5. This Document has been made available to the U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission in confidence with the request that the information contained in the Document be withheld from public disclosure.

6. The following criteria are customarily applied by FRA-ANP to determine whether information should be classified as proprietary:

- (a) The information reveals details of FRA-ANP's research and development plans and programs or their results.
- (b) Use of the information by a competitor would permit the competitor to significantly reduce its expenditures, in time or resources, to design, produce, or market a similar product or service.
- (c) The information includes test data or analytical techniques concerning a process, methodology, or component, the application of which results in a competitive advantage for FRA-ANP.
- (d) The information reveals certain distinguishing aspects of a process, methodology, or component, the exclusive use of which provides a competitive advantage for FRA-ANP in product optimization or marketability.
- (e) The information is vital to a competitive advantage held by FRA-ANP, would be helpful to competitors to FRA-ANP, and would likely cause substantial harm to the competitive position of FRA-ANP.

7. In accordance with FRA-ANP's policies governing the protection and control of information, proprietary information contained in this Document has been made available, on a limited basis, to others outside FRA-ANP only as required and under suitable agreement providing for nondisclosure and limited use of the information.

8. FRA-ANP policy requires that proprietary information be kept in a secured file or area and distributed on a need-to-know basis.

9. The foregoing statements are true and correct to the best of my knowledge, information, and belief.

James R. Malley

SUBSCRIBED before me this 1st
