Office of the Secretary
U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission
Washington, DC 20555

NRC's proposed rule-making, described in The Federal Register, April 16, 2001, Vol. 66, is unacceptable. The new rules would weaken the public's participation in licensing of new reactors, re-licensing of aging reactors, and industry amendments to operating license safety requirements.
One can't help but suspect these stem from the Bush energy agenda favoring more nuclear power plants. We have not solved the problem of nuclear waste & probably never will.

Sincerely yours,
Marjorie Ramphal
