Wayne,

I did not get to the handout items this weekend. My wife had other plans. I am finishing off a revision to my program write-up right now which I will send this morning, and then start on the handout items. I have asked Caius to work on Item 1 and he has started on it. I will draft responses to Items 2, 4, and 5. Please ask Mike Modes to address Item 3, because I cannot. You may, in reality, just ignore Item 3 since it is unclear and does not add anything to the equation.

Ian
