

From: <Tifkel@aol.com>
To: <dgeis@nrc.gov>
Date: 1/21/02 7:32PM
Subject: Decommissioning

11/9/01
66FR56921
(29)

Dear Mr. Geis:

There are still radioactive dangers after decommissioning. I oppose the concept of rubblization as it is very dangerous; I oppose the release of radioactive contaminated materials into daily consumer or commercial uses. That is an idea that is insanely dangerous. Would you eat off a fork that contains radioactive material? Why would anyone?

Sincerely,

Martin Kellerman

RECEIVED
JAN 23 PM 2:43
Info and Directives
Environ
E-900

Template = ADM-013

E-RFDS = ADM-03
Add = M. Masnik (MTM2)