Chapter 11 Case

CASE NO. 01-30923- DM

FIRST INTERIM APPLICATION OF ROTHSCHILD INC.
FOR COMPENSATION AND REIMBURSEMENT OF EXPENSES

Rothschild Inc. ("Applicant"), financial advisor and investment banker to the debtor and debtor-in-possession ("Debtor") of Pacific Gas & Electric Company ("PG&E" or the "Company"), makes this first application for interim compensation and reimbursement of expenses, and in support thereof respectfully represents:

1. This application is made pursuant to sections 330 and 331 of title 11 of the United States Code (the "Bankruptcy Code"), Rule 2016 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, the order of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of California (the "Bankruptcy Court" or this "Court") dated August 21, 2001 approving the retention of Applicant as financial advisor and investment banker to the Debtor, nunc pro tunc, as of July 25, 2001 (the "August 21st Order"), a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit A, under the terms set forth in the application to the Court.

2. Applicant's retention agreement with the Debtor dated July 25, 2001, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit A, among other things, provides for payment of a monthly cash advisory fee of $350,000 for each of the first two months of the engagement, $300,000 for the third month, $250,000 for the fourth month, and $200,000 for each month thereafter as long as the engagement continues (the "Monthly Fee"), subject to a 10% withholding for the period April 6 through July 31, 2001 and a 15% withholding for periods thereafter, plus expenses. Applicant seeks approval of compensation for services rendered during the period July 25, 2001 through and including November 30, 2001 (the "Relevant Period").

3. Applicant seeks approval of compensation rendered during the Relevant Period in the amount of $1,296,666.67, representing Applicant's monthly rate of $350,000.00 for the period July 25, 2001 through September 23, 2001, $300,000.00 for the period September 24, 2001 through October 23, 2001, $250,000.00 for the period October 24, 2001 through November 23, 2001, and $200,000.00 for the period November 24, 2001 through November 30, 2001 plus reimbursement of reasonable and necessary expenses in the amount of $154,407.17¹ incurred by Applicant during the Relevant Period.

4. Pursuant to the August 21st Order, Applicant has already submitted a request to PG&E for the payment of $1,106,118.28 for fees representing (i) 90% of Applicant's monthly fees from July 25, 2001 through July 31, 2001 ($79,032.26) and (ii) 85% of Applicant's monthly fees from August 1, 2001 through November 30, 2001 ($1,217,634.41) and $154,407.17 for all reasonable and necessary expenses incurred by Applicant during the Relevant Period. Pursuant to an order dated July 26, 2001 regarding procedures for interim compensation and reimbursement, fees (subject to a 10%/15% withholding) and expenses incurred in the Relevant Period are payable monthly. Amounts withheld are payable upon approval of the Relevant Period's interim fee application. To date PG&E has paid Applicant a total of $1,069,903.67 for the Relevant Period, representing $925,451.61 for monthly fees and $144,452.06 for expenses. This application seeks interim (i) approval of all fees for services rendered and reimbursement of expenses incurred during the Relevant Period and (ii) payment of Applicant's monthly fees and expenses for the Relevant Period, currently unpaid or withheld by PG&E, in the amount of $381,170.17.

5. Annexed hereto as Exhibits B and D are the invoices for the total compensation and expenses sought by Applicant for the Relevant Period, a breakdown of Applicant's expenses incurred during the Relevant Period and a detailed description of the activities and services performed by Applicant on behalf of the Debtor during the Relevant Period. The retention agreement between the Debtor and Applicant and the resumes of key professionals of Applicant providing services to the Debtor are attached as Exhibits A and C, respectively.

6. Given the size and complexity of these cases, the complicated corporate and financial structure of PG&E, the degree of activity during the Relevant Period and the high level of services rendered by Applicant to the Debtor, as more fully described below, Applicant submits that the compensation it seeks is fair and reasonable.

BACKGROUND

7. On April 6, 2001, PG&E filed a voluntary petition in the Court under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code.

8. PG&E is a public utility engaged principally in the business of providing electricity and natural gas distribution and transmission services throughout Northern and Central California.

9. PG&E continues to operate its business and manage its properties, as debtor-in-possession, pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code.

10. On August 21, 2001, this Court entered an order, pursuant to section 1103(a) of title 11 of the United States Code, 11 U.S.C. §§101-1330 and Bankruptcy Rules 2014(a) and 5002, authorizing the employment and retention of Applicant as the investment banker for the Company as of July 25, 2001.

11. A disclosure statement and plan of reorganization were filed with this court on September 20, 2001 and, as amended, on December 19, 2001.

12. Applicant has been advised that, to date, PG&E has paid all quarterly fees to the United States Trustee.

13. After interviewing several investment banking firms, the Company elected to engage Applicant to advise PG&E in this Chapter 11 as of July 25, 2001. PG&E chose to retain Applicant due to Applicant's reputation as a leading investment banking firm and financial advisor in the restructuring and utility sectors and its substantial experience advising debtors, creditors' committees and other parties in interest in connection with all aspects of the financial restructuring and Chapter 11, including financial advice regarding mergers, acquisitions, divestitures, public and private financings and spin-offs and evaluation of assets and liabilities, formulation and negotiation of plans of reorganization and the restructuring of indebtedness.

14. By the August 21st Order, this Court approved the appointment of Applicant as financial advisor and investment banker to PG&E to provide assistance to the Company in evaluating the complex financial and economic issues raised by PG&E's reorganization case and to fulfill its statutory and fiduciary duties. Applicant was retained by the Company to:

(a) Provide financial advice and assistance to the Company in developing and seeking approval of a reorganization plan (as the same may be modified from time to time, a "Plan"), which may be a plan under chapter 11 of title 11 of the United States Code, 11 U.S.C. §§101 et. seq.

(b) Evaluate the Company's debt capacity in light of its projected cash flows and assist in the determination of an appropriate capital structure for the Company;

(c) If requested by the Company, in connection therewith, provide financial advice and assistance to the Company in structuring any new securities to be issued under the Plan;

(d) Assist the Company and its other professionals in determining a range of values for the Company and any securities that the Company offers or proposes to offer in connection with the Plan or other transaction;

(e) If requested by the Company, assist the Company and/or participate in meetings and negotiations with entities or groups affected by the Plan, including, without limitation, the Company's Board of Directors, any current or prospective creditors of, holders of equity in, or claimants against the Company and/or their respective representatives in connection with the Plan or other transaction;

(f) If requested by the Company, participate in hearings before the Bankruptcy Court, the California Public Utilities Commission and legislative bodies with respect to the matters upon which Rothschild has provided advice, including, as relevant, coordinating, with the Company's counsel with respect to testimony in connection therewith; and,

(g) Render such other financial advisory and investment banking services as may be agreed upon by Rothschild and the Company in connection with the foregoing.

15. All services rendered by Applicant pursuant to the retention order during the Relevant Period were performed at the request or direction of the Company or legal professionals of Howard Rice Nemerovski Canady, Falk & Rabkin, Dewey Ballantine LLP or Weil Gotshal & Manges LLP.

APPLICANT'S ENTITLEMENT TO THE REQUESTED COMPENSATION

23. Applicant respectfully submits that the compensation requested for the Relevant Period for services rendered by Applicant to the Company is fully justified and reasonable based on the following: (a) the degree of activity during the Relevant Period and the high level of services rendered by Applicant to the Company, (b) the complexity of the issues presented, (c) the skill necessary to perform the investment banking services properly, (d) the preclusion of other employment, (e) customary fees charged in non-bankruptcy situations for similar services rendered, (f) time constraints required by the exigencies of the case and (g) the experience, reputation and ability of the professionals rendering services.

24. Applicant respectfully submits that the services it has rendered to the Company have been necessary and in the best interest of PG&E and the estate and have furthered the goals of all parties in interest.

25. The amount of fees and expenses sought in this application and Applicant's billing processes are consistent with market practices for investment banking firms both in and out of a bankruptcy context. Applicant does not bill its clients based on the number of hours expended by its professionals. It bills clients on a retainer basis (generally monthly or quarterly), plus a transaction fee, based upon successful completion of a transaction. Accordingly, Applicant does not have hourly rates for its professionals and Applicant's professionals generally do not maintain time records for the work performed for its clients. Applicant's policy, for all engagements in or out of bankruptcy, is to dedicate the appropriate number of professionals to the assignment to complete the work as efficiently as possible. Applicant has, however, maintained a summary of services performed by Applicant on behalf of the Debtor during the Relevant Period. These records, attached as Exhibit D, describe the services rendered for this period. Applicant incurred reasonable and necessary out-of-pocket expenses aggregating $154,407.17 during the Relevant Period. Details of the expenses incurred during the Relevant Period are also provided in Exhibit B. Applicant submits that all such expenses were necessarily incurred, are reasonable in amount and represent only the actual costs incurred.

26. The services summarized by this application and rendered by Applicant to the Company during the Relevant Period were substantial, highly professional and instrumental to PG&E's reorganization. They were reasonable and necessary to the Company's performance of its duties and should be approved by the Court.

PERSONNEL WHO RENDERED SERVICES

27. Applicant's team has been directed by senior level professionals with extensive experience in the areas of investment banking, bankruptcy services and the utility industry. The investment banking services set forth above were performed by members of Applicant's restructuring group and utility group. The restructuring group's services were performed primarily by David L. Resnick, Managing Director, Stephen S. Ledoux, Managing Director, William R. Shaw, Vice President, Jason R. Capone, Associate, and other professionals and paraprofessionals, as needed. Applicant's general staffing policy is to assign senior bankers and experienced junior bankers to each restructuring assignment. The senior bankers, David L. Resnick and Stephen S. Ledoux, have overall responsibility for the case. They are primarily responsible for developing strategy with respect to the case, directing negotiations, interfacing with the other senior professionals involved with the case and testifying, when necessary, in Bankruptcy Court. In addition, the senior bankers and experienced junior banker, in this case William R. Shaw, is responsible for day-to-day coordination of the case and the review of all financial analyses. The junior banker, in this case, Jason R. Capone, performs extensive financial analyses and assists in the day-to-day coordination of the case. The utility group's services were performed primarily by Matthew L.C. Savage, Managing Director, Robert Mudge, Director, John Chang, Vice President, William Cannon, Vice President, Alice Ku, Analyst, and other professionals and paraprofessionals, as needed.

28. The senior bankers, the experienced junior bankers and the junior bankers coordinate their actions so as to not duplicate efforts. Given that the senior bankers and the experienced junior bankers have different roles in the case but have overlapping responsibilities, there are frequent times where it is appropriate for two or more bankers to be present at a meeting.

SUMMARY OF EXPENSES INCURRED SINCE THE COMMENCEMENT OF THE CASE

29. Applicant incurred reasonable and necessary out-of-pocket expenses aggregating $154,407.17 during the Relevant Period. Details of the expenses incurred during the Relevant Period are also provided in Exhibit B. Applicant submits that all such expenses were necessarily incurred, are reasonable in amount and represent only the actual costs incurred.

30. Applicant's charges for expenses to the Company are determined in the same manner as for clients in non-bankruptcy matters and are consistent with Guidelines for Compensation and Expense Reimbursement of Professionals and Trustees of the United States Bankruptcy Court, Northern District of California. Out-of-pocket expenses incurred by Applicant are charged to a client if the expenses are incurred for the client or are otherwise necessary in connection with services rendered for such particular client. Applicant does not factor general overhead expenses into disbursements charged to clients in connection with Chapter 11 cases. Applicant has followed its general internal policies with respect to out-of-pocket expenses billed to PG&E as set forth below, with any exceptions fully explained.

(a) Applicant bills breakfast or dinner meals to a client if the employee is traveling on client matters at cost. Meal expenses incurred during meetings which employees and other meeting participants are required to attend are billed at cost.

(b) Messengers and couriers are used by Applicant to deliver hard copy documents relating to a client matter which require receipt on an expedited basis; otherwise, Applicant uses the regular postal system. Any charges for either messengers or couriers are billed to a client at cost.

(c) All airfare charges billed to a client in a Chapter 11 case are based on coach fare rates.

(d) Applicant charges for transportation to and from airports and while traveling on client matters at cost.

(e) The research/database category consists of the cost of using databases (e.g., Disclosure, Securities Data Corporation, Dow Jones, Lexis-Nexis, etc.) to which Applicant subscribes to search for and obtain information used in Applicant's financial analyses. Applicant pays the vendor's standard rate for such database services. In certain instances, Applicant has determined that paying a flat annual or monthly fee for such services is less costly than contracting for such services on a per use basis. Such annual or monthly services are allocated to clients based on such clients' use of each service. The research category also consists of charges from outside services which supply, for a fee, financial documents from regulatory agencies which can not be obtained from databases subscribed to by Applicant.

(f) Applicant bills photocopying charges at the rate of $.10 per page for black and white copies and $1.00 per page for color copies.

(g) Telephone expenses are charged based on Applicant's actual cost of telephone charges with respect to client matters. Cellular phone charges are based on vendor's actual invoices.

(h) Conference calls arranged through a third party vendor are charged a $0.75 per minute usage charge based on the vendor's charges for such services.

30. In the course of rendering services to PG&E as its financial advisor during the Relevant Period, Applicant incurred and paid certain expenses as outlined in Exhibit B. Applicant submits that all such expenses were necessarily incurred, are reasonable in amount and represent only the actual costs incurred by Applicant.

CONCLUSION

31. Applicant submits that the services summarized by this application and rendered by Applicant to the Company during the Relevant Period were substantial, highly professional and instrumental to PG&E's performance in the case.

32. As noted above, in accordance with the provisions of the August 21st Order and Applicant's retention agreement, Applicant seeks:

a) Interim approval of compensation for services rendered in the amount of $1,296,666.67 in fees, representing Applicant's monthly rate of $350,000 for the period July 25, 2001 through September 23, 2001, $300,000 for the period September 24, 2001 through October 23, 2001, $250,000 for the period October 24, 2001 through November 23, 2001, and $200,000 for the period November 24, 2001 through November 30, 2001;

b) Interim approval of reimbursement of reasonable and necessary expenses in the amount of $154,407.17 incurred and paid by Applicant during the Relevant Period; and

c) Payment by PG&E of the portions of Applicant's monthly fees and expenses that currently remain unpaid or withheld by PG&E, in the amount of $381,170.17.

Applicant submits, for the reasons set forth above, that such compensation and reimbursement of expenses is necessary, fair and reasonable.

33. Applicant hereby certifies that all services for which compensation is sought were performed for and on behalf of the Company and not on behalf of any individual creditor or party in interest. Applicant has not entered into any agreement, express or implied, with any party in interest for the purpose of fixing or sharing fees or other compensation to be paid for professional services rendered in these cases.

* * *

WHEREFORE, Applicant respectfully requests that this Court enter an order (a) granting an interim allowance of compensation for the period beginning July 25, 2001 through and including November 30, 2001 in the amount of $1,296,666.67 for services rendered by Applicant as financial advisor and investment banker to PG&E, and reimbursement of expenses incurred and recorded by Applicant during the Relevant Period in the amount of $154,407.17, (b) directing payment to Applicant of such amounts representing the portion of Applicant's compensation and expenses unpaid or withheld by PG&E, specifically the payment of $381,170.17 and (c) granting such other and further relief as this court deems just and proper.
