Dear FOIA Officer;

We would greatly appreciate your help with the following request. Under the Freedom of Information Act, we are requesting access to any and all records either concerning or discussing communication or interaction between your organization or department, and the following individuals or their offices between January 1, 1999 and February 21, 2002:

- Oregon senators Gordon Smith and Ron Wyden and their aides, subordinates or employees.
- Oregon representatives David Wu, Greg Walden, Earl Blumenaur, Peter A. DeFazio, and Darlene Hooley and their aides, subordinates or employees.

Please note that this request includes but is not limited to copies of electronic and written documentation regarding phone calls, meetings, and correspondence between your agency and the above-listed offices, individuals and employees.

If you deny any part of this request, we ask you to cite each specific reason that you think justifies your refusal to release the information. Please notify us of appeal procedures under the law.

We request a waiver of all fees for this request. Disclosure of the requested information is in the public interest because it is likely to contribute significantly to public understanding of the operations or activities of the government and is not primarily in any commercial interest.

As we are not sure how time intensive this request will be, please notify us if you have suggestions to streamline this request in this manner so as to avoid unnecessary workload. For instance, if a portion of this request involves costly restoration of destroyed computer files, please call to notify us before fulfilling it.

If there is any other way to clarify or lubricate this request, please call us at (503) 243-2122 so we can discuss potential modifications. Thank you very much for your consideration.

Yours,

Ariel Hansen
