In the Matter of

PRIVATE FUEL STORAGE, LLC

(Independent Spent Fuel Storage Installation)

Docket No. 72-22-ISFSI

ASLBP No. 97-732-02-ISFSI

October 8, 2002

ORDER

The NRC Staff has moved for a three-working-day extension of time for filing its reply papers related to the State of Utah's Geotechnical Contentions L/QQ. Those papers would otherwise be due this Thursday, October 10. Both the State and the Applicant PFS oppose the motion, for reasons relayed to us in the Staff's motion.

For good cause shown, including the complexity of the issues, the volume of the initial filings on those issues, and the similar extension granted at the State's request on those initial filings, the motion for an extension is hereby GRANTED and, as requested by the parties, is made applicable to all parties' geotechnical filings. Accordingly, their replies on this subject will now be due on Wednesday, October 16 (replies on the aircraft accident issues were duly and timely filed by all parties yesterday).

It is so ORDERED.
