re: PFS's Motion for Reconsideration of LBP-03-04 – State's Response and PFS's Reply

Dear Administrative Judges:

The State is filing two versions of its Response to PFS's Motion for Reconsideration. One version has information claimed proprietary by PFS and is, therefore, being served only on those persons authorized to have access to that information. The second version redacts the claimed proprietary information and is served on the general PFS service list.

The State notes that the Board's Order of April 4, 2003, does not set a page limitation on PFS's Reply. Unless the Board intends the Reply to follow the intent of the Memorandum and Order (Memorializing Initial Prehearing Conference Directives) issued by Judge Bollwerk on February 2, 1998, the State respectfully suggests that the Board set a page limit for the Reply.

Sincerely,

Denise Chancellor
Assistant Attorney General
