Re: Rulemaking on Controlling the Disposition of Solid Materials; Scoping Process for Environmental Issues

Dear Sirs:

Envirocare of Utah, Inc. (Envirocare) would like to submit the following comments. First, Envirocare believes that this rulemaking is necessary and hopefully will provide consistency with respect to very low levels of radioactively contaminated solids. Second, Envirocare is also supportive of the proposed implementation consistent with the IAEA protocol in Europe. Third, Envirocare believes that all radioactive material (including NARM) should be controlled within the one mrem standard.

Please call me at 1-801-532-1330 with any questions or concerns.

Sincerely,

Ken Alkema
Senior Vice President of Compliance and Permitting
