Subject: Nuclear Management Company (NMC) Names Paul A. Harden as Site Director at the Palisades Nuclear Generating Plant

Discussion:

On September 17, 2003, Nuclear Management Company announced that the Palisades Nuclear Generating Plant Director Of Engineering, Paul A. Harden, has been promoted to the position of Site Director at Palisades. This appointment was announced as effective immediately.

The Site Director position had been vacant as a result of the recent promotion of the previous Site Director to the Site Vice President position.

As Palisades Site Director, Mr. Harden will be responsible for all plant operational and technical activities on site and will report directly to the Site Vice President.
