NRC Docket No. 50-289

Subject: Supplemental Information Concerning a Proposed Alternative Associated with the Use of a Weld Overlay

References: 1) Letter from Michael P. Gallagher (AmerGen Energy Company, LLC), to
U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission, dated November 3, 2003

2) Letter from Michael P. Gallagher (AmerGen Energy Company, LLC), to
U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission, dated November 7, 2003

In the Referenced letters, AmerGen Energy Company (AmerGen) requested a proposed alternative in accordance with 10 CFR 50.55a, "Codes and standards," paragraph (a)(3)(i) and supplied additional information requested by the U. S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission. As supplemental information, Figure 2 to the Reference 1 letter contains information proprietary to Framatome-ANP. Framatome-ANP requests that the document be withheld from public disclosure in accordance with 10 CFR 2.790(a)(4) and that the copies without the proprietary stamp be destroyed. An affidavit supporting this request is contained in Attachment 1. Attachment 2 to this letter contains the proprietary version of Figure 2.

1. My name is Gayle F. Elliott. I am Manager, Product Licensing in Regulatory Affairs, for Framatome ANP ("FANP"), and as such I am authorized to execute this Affidavit.

2. I am familiar with the criteria applied by FANP to determine whether certain FANP information is proprietary. I am familiar with the policies established by FANP to ensure the proper application of these criteria.

3. I am familiar with the figure referenced in letter number 5928-03-20232 from Michael P. Gallagher, AmerGen Energy Company, LLC, to the U. S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission, dated November 18, 2003, entitled "Supplemental Information Concerning a Proposed Alternative Associated with the Use of a Weld Overlay" and referred to herein as "Document." Information contained in this Document has been classified by FANP as proprietary in accordance with the policies established by FANP for the control and protection of proprietary and confidential information.

4. This Document contains information of a proprietary and confidential nature and is of the type customarily held in confidence by FANP and not made available to the public. Based on my experience, I am aware that other companies regard information of the kind contained in this Document as proprietary and confidential.

5. This Document has been made available to the U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission in confidence with the request that the information contained in this Document be withheld from public disclosure.

6. The following criteria are customarily applied by FANP to determine whether information should be classified as proprietary:

- (a) The information reveals details of FANP's research and development plans and programs or their results.
- (b) Use of the information by a competitor would permit the competitor to significantly reduce its expenditures, in time or resources, to design, produce, or market a similar product or service.
- (c) The information includes test data or analytical techniques concerning a process, methodology, or component, the application of which results in a competitive advantage for FANP.
- (d) The information reveals certain distinguishing aspects of a process, methodology, or component, the exclusive use of which provides a competitive advantage for FANP in product optimization or marketability.
- (e) The information is vital to a competitive advantage held by FANP, would be helpful to competitors to FANP, and would likely cause substantial harm to the competitive position of FANP.

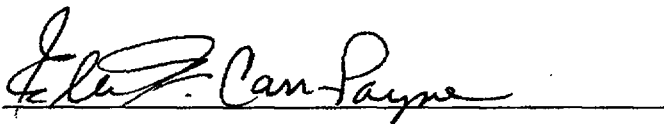

7. In accordance with FANP's policies governing the protection and control of information, proprietary information contained in this Document have been made available, on a limited basis, to others outside FANP only as required and under suitable agreement providing for nondisclosure and limited use of the information.

8. FANP policy requires that proprietary information be kept in a secured file or area and distributed on a need-to-know basis.

9. The foregoing statements are true and correct to the best of my knowledge, information, and belief.
