MEMORANDUM AND ORDER
(Appointing Settlement Judge)

While noting some possible ambiguity in the position of one of the parties regarding its willingness to enter into a settlement process, in a March 15, 2004 memorandum the Presiding Officer in this 10 C.F.R. Part 2, Subpart L proceeding requested the appointment of a settlement judge. As the Presiding Officer pointed out, Commission policy favors the settlement of proceedings. Under the circumstances here, it appears appropriate to appoint a settlement judge. Accordingly, pursuant to my authority under 10 C.F.R. § 2.1207, I appoint Administrative Judge Paul Abramson to serve as a settlement judge in this proceeding.

As an initial matter, counsel to the parties to this proceeding should contact Judge Abramson (301-415-7450) on or before Tuesday, March 23, 2004, and indicate to him whether they wish to participate in the settlement process. If Judge Abramson receives positive indications in this regard from applicant CFC Logistics, Inc., (CFC) and the intervening individuals, then he should move forward to aid them with settlement discussions.

It is so ORDERED.
