

The New Rule

10 CFR 50.48(c)

Paul W. Lain, P.E., NRR

Chris Nolan, OE

U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission

September 20, 2004

NFPA 805

- The Rule
- The Implementation and Transition
(Liz Kleinsorg)
- The Regulatory Guide
- Interim Enforcement Discretion
(Chris Nolan)

The Rule

- Purpose
 - Voluntary Alternative to Appendix R
 - Risk-Informed/Performance-Based
- National Consensus Standard (NFPA 805)
 - Sets Performance-Based Criteria
 - Core Fire Protection Elements
 - Parallel Nuclear Safety Criteria
- 10 CFR 50.48(c)
 - Endorses NFPA 805 w/ Minimal Exceptions

Regulatory Guide

- Safe Today/ Safe Tomorrow
- NEI 04-02 Implementation Guide
- Next Steps
- New Fire Modeling & PRA Tools

Enforcement Discretion

- Commission Approved
- Encourages NFPA 805 Adoption
- Two Provisions
 - Items Identified During Self-Assessment
 - Items within the Corrective Action Program

Summary

- This rule has been developed in collaboration with stakeholders to offer a risk-inform voluntary alternative to the deterministic Appendix R criteria while assuring the health and safety of public.