Honorable Secretary:

Good intentions are not enough regarding nuclear security. Your entire focus and awareness must be on the safety of the nuclear facilities from attack, sabotage, carelessness, and incompetence. I hope you have the courage and heart to exercise your judgment and decision-making without regard to political, personal, or financial ramifications. To do otherwise is to risk death, destruction and a total loss of confidence in the ability of our government to do its job.

Thank you for your diligence.

Sincerely,

Eileen Charles Hyatt
