Reply to a Notice of Violation

Dear Sir or Madam:

On December 01, 2004 Jenny Johansen of Nuclear Regulatory Commission "Region 1" Conducted the inspection relate to radiation safety and compliance with the Commission's regulations and the license conditions.

During the inspection Jenny Johansen found that Consulting Engineers Corp. did not fully complied with the commission's regulations in three areas.

- 1- The employees who already had Hazmat Training but did not receive the refresher Training in three years. (49 CFR 172.704 c).
- 2- The licensee's shipping paper referred to identification number UN2974 instead of UN3332 (172.101 Table).
- 3- Did not post "NOTICE TO EMPLOYEES" form NRC-3 describing where the documents can be found. (10CFR 19.99c).

In complying with this inspection Consulting engineers Corp. has taken the necessary step to correct these mistakes.

- A. We have registered our employee (Tony Tran) who already been certified for the use of nuclear gauge testing equipment to the Hazmat refresher training. The training will be held at Comfort Inn in Richmond, Virginia on February 28, 2005 by Humboldt Scientific, Inc. phone # 800 537-4183.

- B. We have changed the Identification Number for shipping from UN2974 to UN3332.
- C. We have posted the "NOTICE TO EMPLOYEES" form visible on front of filing cabinet and equipment storage.

We promise we will pay full attention and take all necessary steps to comply with the regulation and requirement of the NUCLEAR REGULATORY COMMISSION to avoid any mistake in the future.

Sincerely

Tony Tran
