Subject: I spoke to Orysia regarding the post-it note in the docket file for this license to remove a facility from the license during the next licensing action. The licensee had conducted a close out survey. Inspectors from the Atlanta office had performed a confirmatory survey. A letter was written to the licensee from the Atlanta office that the close out survey and documentation were acceptable. Orysia stated Atlanta NRC office personnel forgot to remove the facility from the license. She stated there were no problems or concerns with the close out survey.
Action Required/Taken: talked to NRC personnel responsible for note in docket file, removed reference to decommissioned facility when a new electronic version of the license was created for the renewal
