>Hi Bruce, >Per our conversation on June 28, 2004; I have verified your findings on >the EPA ECHO site (there has not been a RCRA inspection since 1999). I >have checked the RCRA INFO site and have found the same. There has not >been a RCRA violation since 1999, and the violations that have been >incurred are more of a paperwork problem rather than a release to the >environment.
>If I can be of any help in the future please don't hesitate to ask.
