Subject: Poll on VY missing fuel

On its web site, the Keene (N.H.) Sentinel is posing this question: "Are you concerned about missing fuel rods at Vermont Yankee?"

As of this morning, the results are: 61 percent "no," 31 percent "yes" and 8 percent "sort of." The total number of votes cast is not provided, so it's difficult to gauge whether there was any vote stacking going on, which would not be unusual.

The web site can be found at: <http://www1.keenesentinel.com/index.asp>
