Thank you, Neil.
We had not seen this yet.

I'm not sure how many have seen this, but this press release by Sen. Jeffords yesterday certainly got the reporters in Vermont hopping: <http://jeffords.senate.gov/~jeffords/press/04/05/052004nrc.html>

There are a number of questions in his release that we should think about drafting answers to since they're bound to come up again.
