

From: Eliot Brenner ^{-OPR}
 To: Neil Sheehan
 Date: 5/4/04 2:16PM
 Subject: Re: a message from eliot

thanks for the observation. after 6.5 days on the job here i am tempted to use a line from a robin williams movie in which a security guard tells the two russians trying on jeans at macy's — "you're in america now, speak american."

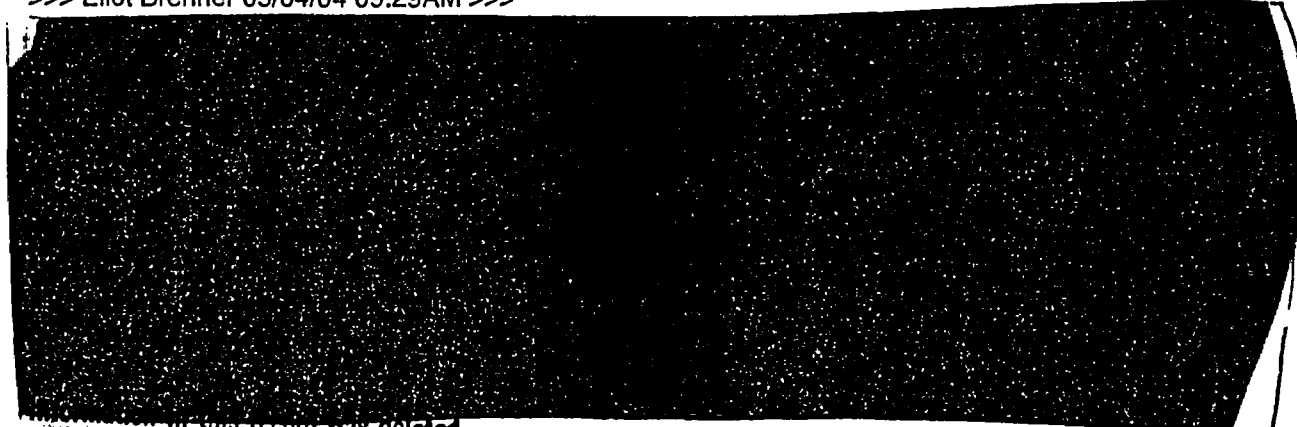

eliot

>>> Neil Sheehan 05/04/04 02:12PM >>>
 Eliot,

Regards,
 Neil Region I

>>> Eliot Brenner 05/04/04 09:29AM >>>

Information in this record was deleted
 in accordance with the Freedom of Information Act, exemptions 5
 FOIA- 2004-369

release
 EB w/hold

 #5
 EB

w/hold ~~release~~ #5
 EB

1-9

w/hold
#5
EB

Bill Outlaw, the new Director of Communications, and I were introduced to the rest of the senior managers who we had not already met ... and I got several invitations to come visit various operations, including glorious Yucca Mountain. I also was told by a number of the regional administrators that they think the sun rises and sets on the public affairs staff in their regions. So for those of you in the regional offices, consider yourselves to have been patted on the head.

rdene
EB

McGaffigan said, among other things, he wished there were press guidance available for commissioners so they would know the kosher answers if called by reporters. Merrifield addressed communications in a rather generic, non specific way.

rdene
EB

The punch and cookies were delightful, but me being me, I would have far more preferred port and cigars in the wardroom.

Cheers ...

Eliot