I think it would be a good idea to revise my summary to include the following: ".....He has led numerous inspection teams during his 19 years with the agency, including several in which raised significant safety issues. He is currently the overall project lead for the NRC's pilot program to improve the effectiveness of its inspections in the engineering area. Prior to joining the NRC .....

I think it is important to demonstrate that not only am I independent, I have led teams that have identified significant problems in the past.
