Attached is PSEG's latest site wide communication, e-mail letter, on our letter. The e-mail was sent yesterday. It is not signed by Roy although it certainly reads like he was the author. It is not as blatant as his previous "disappointing" remarks, but it still reads as if it should still be business as usual to a certain extent. Notice the sentence, "Keep in mind that this letter and our response does not change our current course or plan." The residents have not sensed any negative reaction and in fact our experiences at the manager, supervisor, and working level have been more on the positive side. We will stay sensitive to the site messages that are being sent and the how they are received.

The all-hand meetings referred to in the e-mail are being held today. We will attend.
Dan
