MEMORANDUM TO: Laura A. Dudes, Branch Chief

FROM: Eric R. Oesterle, Project Manager

Office of Nuclear Reactor Regulation

SUBJECT: SUMMARY OF MARCH 15, 2006, PUBLIC MEETING AND WORKSHOP
ON DRAFT REGULATORY GUIDE (DG-1145), COMBINED LICENSE
(COL) APPLICATIONS FOR NUCLEAR POWER PLANTS
(LIGHT WATER REACTOR EDITION)

On March 15, 2006, the Nuclear Regulatory Commission (NRC) staff met with approximately 75 combined license (COL) application stakeholders in a public meeting and workshop to discuss the staff's plans to develop a draft regulatory guide (RG) for COL applications: DG-1145, "Combined License Applications for Nuclear Power Plants (LWR Edition)." The staff discussed the layout of the draft RG and its contents. The stakeholders made suggestions on the organization of the RG which the staff adopted. The staff also discussed its process for public development of the document, which includes early communication with the public via the NRC web site, placing work-in-progress sections of the draft RG on the NRC web site, and accepting public comments via the web site or during the public meetings and workshops. The staff also discussed two specific sections of the RG that have been placed on the NRC web site as work-in-progress documents: (1) Section C.IV.1, "COL Application Acceptance Review Checklist", and (2) Section C.I.12, "Radiation Protection." Finally, the NRC presented its assessment of the remaining review topics for Chapter 12 of the COL applicant's safety analysis report if the COL application referenced a certified design.

Comments and questions were solicited by the staff during the meeting. Questions submitted to the staff on DG-1145 will be posted on the NRC website. It is the staff's intent to develop responses to these questions and compile all the questions received prior to the issuance of DG-1145 for review and comment. The questions and associated responses will be published in Section C.IV of the draft RG. Additional public meetings are planned prior to the scheduled issuance of DG-1145 for review and comment in June 2006. Future meeting notices will specify the dates and specific sections of DG-1145 to be presented and discussed.
