CHANGE OF PERSONNEL IN THE OFFICE OF STATE AND TRIBAL PROGRAMS (STP-06-026)

We are pleased to announce the following new persons in the Office of State and Tribal Programs (STP).

Mr. Joshua Palotay and Ms. Monica Orendi have joined the STP staff as Health Physicists, effective March 6, 2006 and March 20, 2006, respectively.

Mr. Joshua Palotay is a recent graduate from Oregon State University with a Master of Science degree in Radiation Health Physics. He earned his Bachelor of Science degree in Radiological Science - Nuclear Medicine from the Oregon Institute of Technology and is accredited as a Certified Nuclear Medicine Technologist with the NMTCB and ARRT. In addition, Mr. Palotay has previous experience in emergency services as a firefighter and paramedic, holding Associate degrees in both disciplines. You may contact him at (301) 415-6231 or by his internet address: JXP5@nrc.gov.

Ms. Monica Orendi is a recent graduate from Georgetown University with a Master of Science degree in Health Physics. She earned her Bachelor of Science degree in Nuclear Medicine Technology from Edinboro University of Pennsylvania and is accredited by both the Certified Nuclear Medicine Technologist Board and the American Registry of Radiologic Technologist. You may contact her at (301) 415-3938 or by her internet address: MLO1@nrc.gov.

In addition, Terry Brock, Ph.D. has transferred from STP to the Office of Nuclear Regulatory Research. The Office of State and Tribal Programs has greatly appreciated his services. Those here at STP wish him good luck with his new assignment.

Please join me in welcoming both Mr. Palotay and Ms. Orendi to STP. If you have any questions regarding this correspondence, please contact me or the individual named below.
