WILSE, sounds like same issue we have opened up on. I don't see that it effects the decision for Oi to conduct the investigation. Jeff

Please read the clarifications. This is the [REDACTED] high vibration alarm response procedure issue that, I guess, was also brought up by this different interviewee. I don't see this changing what were doing do you? I still think we need to interview at least a couple of people if this IS the same issue.
