Thanks.

For all: We should continue to do all we can to protect identities of anyone who has brought us information.

Fact is, we started this review for a variety of reasons, and by now, in the context of our review, we've spoken with dozens of people.

So it's moot how we got started at this point, and, further, any suggestion that maybe we are just passing unconfirmed perceptions from one source is preposterous.

I've received a call from the New York Times.... have to get back to him. I did speak to a reporter at the Camden Courier Post. He indicated he'd heard this could be attributed to one particular whistleblower... I did not confirm that.
