AREVA IS RENAMING ITS US SUBSIDIARIES TO INCREASE ITS NAME RECOGNITION. The Paris-based company announced today that its nuclear cycle business, Cogema Inc., is now Areva NC Inc., and its nuclear power business, Framatome ANP Inc., will be Areva NP Inc. The company said the name of its transmission and distribution affiliate, Areva T&D, will not change. Areva says the changes "fully integrate the Areva name and brand to both customers and the public."
