I had cash in my purse (10 $100 bills) totaling $1000 to deposit in the bank on Monday, August 16, 2004. This money was banded with a paper band from the bank and was not in my wallet be underneath it, covered a cell phone, glasses case, pens, etc. I did not make it to the bank on Monday.

I had received actually $1,100, but I had used one of the $100 to make a purchase on Sunday, evening from J.C. Penny and had change in the amount of $88 that I placed in my wallet for spending money for the week. On Monday, August 16, I used two one dollar bills to purchase a drink for lunch.

I was attending a HLWRS Standup meeting from 2:00 p.m. - 3:00 p.m. on Monday, August 16 in T-7-C-1. When the meeting ended I returned to my office and worked until 5:20 p.m. and drove home. No purchases were made.

On Tuesday, August 17, I learned of the thefts and checked to see if the $1000 was still in my purse. It was, however, I did not check the spending money in my wallet.

I deposited the cash at the Bank of America (Rockville Pike) at about 11: 50 a.m. on Tuesday, August 17 and drove back into the building. I decided to stop by the cafeteria on my way back up to the 7th floor and get a drink so I could eat my lunch at my desk. When I went to get out two dollar bills I realized that the theft had occurred. The $86 dollars were taken, no change, no credit cards, everything else was not disturbed in my purse.

I saw the agency e-mail notice regarding the thefts and sent an e-mail to report it.

At 3:00 p.m. [redacted] came to my office to interview me about the theft.
