MEMORANDUM

(Availability of Draft Environmental Impact Statement)

By letter dated September 10, 2007, the NRC staff notified the Licensing Board and the parties to this proceeding, including the Joint Intervenors,¹ of the public availability as of that date of the staff's draft environmental impact statement (DEIS) through the agency's website. The staff also noted that on September 14, 2007, a notice regarding the public availability of the DEIS is to be published in the Federal Register.

Previously, in its May 2007 memorandum and order establishing an initial general schedule for this proceeding, the Board noted that "to be considered timely any motion to admit a new/late-filed or to amend an admitted contention must be filed within thirty days of the event that provides the triggering basis for submitting a new/late-filed or amended contention." Licensing Board Memorandum and Order (Prehearing Conference and Initial Scheduling Order) (May 7, 2007) at 3 (unpublished). In addition, the Board provided an appendix to that issuance in which it set forth a series of filing deadline dates, including dates for submitting new/late-filed and amended contentions, associated with the staff's then-current estimate that the DEIS would be issued and made available to the public (and the Joint Intervenors) on September 14, 2007. See id. app. A, at 1.

Relative to those dates, as well as any others in the schedule that correspond to an event that triggers a deadline for party filings, the Board observes that the continuing validity of the specific dates in the schedule rests on the presumption that the event actually occurs on the estimated date specified in the schedule. If an event (such as the availability of the DEIS to the Joint Intervenors) occurs before or after that date, then the filing dates would adjust accordingly (absent some other specific directive from the Board).
