ORDER

The Center for a Sustainable Coast, Georgia Women’s Action for New Directions (formerly known as Atlanta Women’s Action for New Directions), and Southern Alliance for Clean Energy recently filed a motion to reopen the record and admit a new contention in the Vogtle proceeding, captioned above.¹ Southern Nuclear Operating ¹ Southern Nuclear Operating Co. (Vogtle Electric Generating Plant, Units 3 and 4): Motion to Reopen the Record and Admit Contention to Address the Safety and Environmental Implications of the Nuclear Regulatory Commission Task Force Report on the Fukushima Dai-ichi Accident (Aug. 11, 2011); Contention Regarding NEPA Requirement to Address Safety and Environmental Implications of the Fukushima Task Force Report (Aug. 11, 2011).

Company opposed the Vogtle motion.² Gene Stilp similarly filed a motion to reopen the record and admit a new contention in the Bell Bend proceeding, captioned above.³ Intervenor in the Comanche Peak proceeding, also captioned above, similarly filed a motion to reopen the record and admit a new contention.⁴ Luminant Generation Company, LLC, (Luminant) opposed the Comanche Peak motion.⁵

Pursuant to my authority under 10 C.F.R. § 2.346(i), I refer these matters, and any additional associated pleadings that may be filed, to the Chief Administrative Judge

² Southern Nuclear Operating Co. (Vogtle Electric Generating Plant, Units 3 and 4): Southern Nuclear Operating Company's Answer in Opposition to Motions to Reopen the Record and Admit Contentions (Aug. 22, 2011). This answer, filed simultaneously before the Commission and the Atomic Safety and Licensing Board that heard the terminated contested proceeding, also responds to a motion referred previously to the Chief Administrative Judge of the Panel, by Order dated Aug. 18, 2011.

⁴ See Luminant Generation Co., LLC (Comanche Peak Nuclear Power Plant Units 3 and 4): Motion to Reopen the Record and Admit Contention Regarding the Safety and Environmental Implications of the Nuclear Regulatory Commission Task Force Report on the Fukushima Dai-ichi Accident (Aug. 11, 2011); Contention Regarding NEPA Requirement to Address Safety and Environmental Implications of the Fukushima Task Force Report (Aug. 11, 2011).

of the Atomic Safety and Licensing Board Panel for appropriate action consistent with 10 C.F.R. §§ 2.309 and 2.326.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

For the Commission
