

Maintaining Our Safety Focus

Bruce Boger

Deputy Director,

Office of Nuclear Reactor Regulation

U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission

301-415-1272; Bruce.Boger@nrc.gov

September 13, 2011

Safety: Staying the Course

- Notable Successes
- Near Misses
- Bottom Line: We Are In This Together

Improving Communications

- Increased Involvement of NRC Managers
- Improved Accessibility to Public Meetings
- Routine Management Meetings
- More Effective Use of Generic Communications (RISs & INs)
- Frequent and Early Contact with NRC Staff and Supervisors on Facility Issues
- Your Active and Timely Participation is Essential

Safety Culture And Safety Conscience Work Environment

- Importance
- NRC Staff Presentation

RTRs in a Post Fukushima Daiichi Nuclear Industry

- Direct impact
- Indirect impact

- Engage with the staff
- NRC commitment for next year
 - An opportunity for feedback

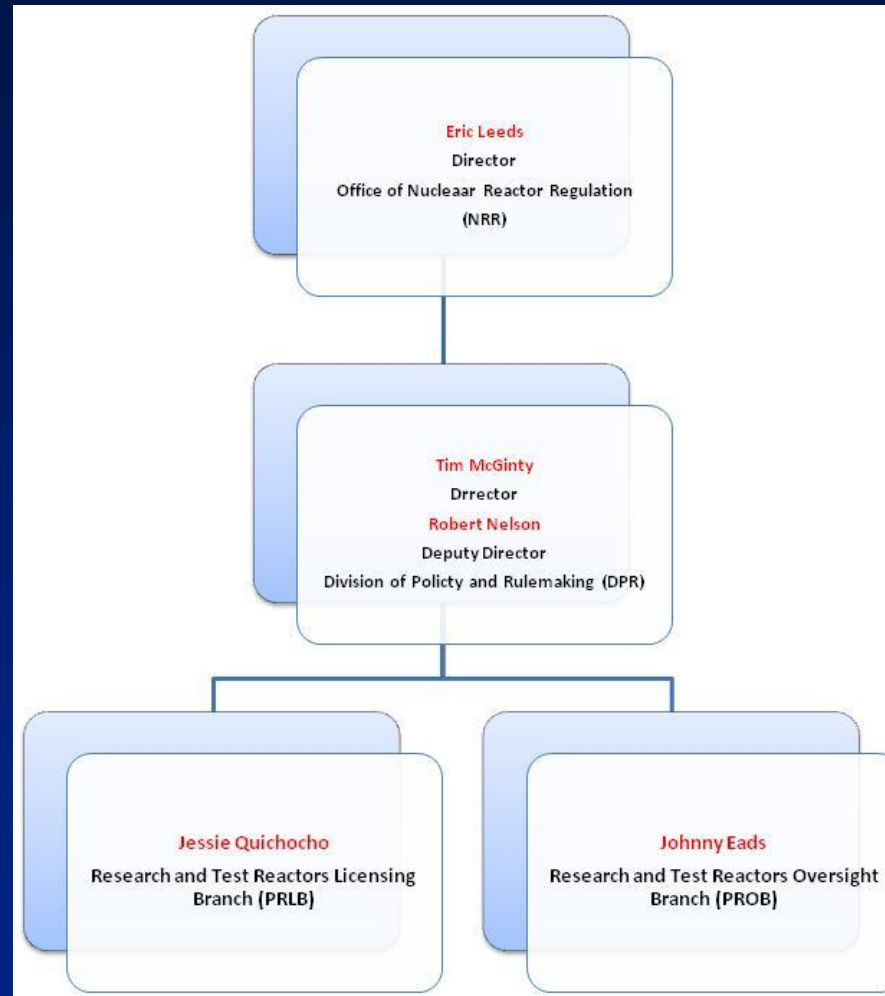

NRC Session Topics: Tuesday, September 13

- Inspection/Exam Program
- Safety Culture
- Reg. Guides Update
- Licensing Process
- Emergency Planning/Incident Response
- Security and Rulemaking
- Fuel Conversions (HEU to LEU)
- Rulemaking*
- Digital I&C*

Challenges

- NRC Reorganization
- Budget

NRR Organization Chart

Questions and Answers

