Thanks for the information Dave. Let me check with some fellow PMs about the pros and cons of your suggestion. My worry, is that someone will get confused down the line. Its easy to just have the latest Rev in a complete format without any questions. I'll get back to you.

Subject: VCS ESP Application Revision 1 Submittal Format

Mike- For the upcoming VCS ESP Application, Revision 1 submittal, we are planning to submit electronic disks containing just the Parts of the application that have been revised. These revised Parts (Part 2, Part 3, Part 4, and Part 5) will be designated Revision 1.

The Parts not revised (Part 1 and Part 6) will remain designated as Revision 0. These Parts will not be resubmitted in the Revision 1 submittal letter. However, "reviewer disks" will be provided as courtesy copies, which will contain the entire current application (i.e., Part 1, Rev. 0; Parts 2, 3, 4, and 5, Rev. 1; Part 6, Rev. 0).

Can you please confirm that this submittal format is acceptable?

Thanks.
Dave Distel
