Lisa,

As discussed previously, due to scheduling priorities with the technical staff, we were unable to hold a conference call to discuss clarifications regarding your proposed response to the NRR staff Request for Additional Information. It is important that we have a call as soon as possible. Therefore, the staff is proposing a time this week and we will discuss a new deadline for your RAI response. The February 17th date will be postponed until a mutually agreeable date following our call. I am putting this message in ADAMS as an official agency record.
