It may be easier for you to set up a daily bridge so if you want to set one up just let me know the number.
Thanks.

A bridge line would be good because I think Mike and Al want to be on the calls and they occasionally will be calling in from remote locations. If you want I could also use one of our Exelon lines...just let me know

That should work. Dennis will be on the calls at times, but he is out today and next week and I am the acting BC so it will just be me. Should I set up a bridge line or should I just call you?

Hi Rob....I guess Dennis and Mike have been discussing a daily call to drive to resolution any open issues.

I would propose we have the call sometime mid-morning (around 10-1030). Let me know if that is ok and we could have the first call today.

Thanks Chris
