U.S. EPR Design Certification GOTHIC Input Information in Support of the Response to RAI 462, Question 06.02.03-7

Ref. 1: E-mail, Getachew Tesfaye (NRC) to Russell Wells (AREVA NP Inc.), "U.S. EPR Design Certification Application RAI No. 462 (5258, 5259, 5260), FSAR Ch. 6," January 26, 2011.

Ref. 2: E-Mail, Russell Wells (AREVA NP Inc.) to Getachew Tesfaye (NRC), "Response to U.S. EPR Design Certification Application RAI No. 462, FSAR Ch. 6, Supplement 4," July 22, 2011.

Ref. 3: Letter, Sandra Sloan (AREVA NP Inc.) to Document Control Desk (NRC), "NRC Request for U.S. EPR Design Certification GOTHIC Input Information," July 21, 2011, NRC:11:078.

In Reference 1, the NRC provided a request for additional information (RAI) regarding the U.S. EPR design certification application. Reference 2 provided a technically correct and complete response to nine questions, including Question 06.02.03-7. In the response to Question 06.02.03-7, AREVA NP Inc. (AREVA NP) indicated that the requested GOTHIC input decks would be provided on a compact disc, under a separate submittal. Reference 3 provided this separate submittal of the input files to the GOTHIC code. Upon subsequent discussion with NRC staff, it was determined that Reference 3 did not contain the appropriate input files. Therefore, we are resending the CD with the correct GOTHIC input files that support the response provided to Question 06.02.03-7 in Ref. 2. The response to this question has not changed, and there are no further commitments associated with this topic.

AREVA NP considers the information on the enclosed CD to be proprietary in its entirety; therefore, a non-proprietary version will not be provided. As required by 10 CFR 2.390(b), an affidavit is enclosed to support the withholding of the information from public disclosure.

If you have any questions related to this information, please contact Darrell Gardner by telephone at (704) 805-2355 or by e-mail at darrell.gardner@areva.com.

Sincerely,
