In a letter dated August 8, 2012, the licensee requested that the location of use on his licensed be changed from 106 Irving Street NW, Washington, DC, to his facility at 1160 Barnum Street NE, Washington DC. The license was amended to include both locations, pending removal of the initial location of use. In a letter dated December 8, 2012, the licensee requested that the transfer of location be cancelled.

In a telephone conversation on February 20, 2013, with the licensee, a licensee representative stated the licensed activity would continue at the Irving Street location, and that the licensee would not be performing licensed activity at the Barnum Street location. The licensee further stated that licensed material was never possessed or used at the Barnum Street location.

Action Required: Process amendment to remove the authorized location of use at 1160 Barnum Street NE, Washington, DC., from the licenseDocument Availability:
