The Honorable Thomas R. Carper
United States Senate
Washington, DC 20510

Dear Senator Carper:

The U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission (NRC) recently received an invitation to participate in the upcoming 2013 Procurement Expo hosted by the Department of Defense's Delaware Procurement Technical Assistance Center.

The NRC shares your commitment to support small businesses and encourage their participation in government procurement opportunities. We are happy to accept the invitation and will send two members from the NRC's Small Business Program Office to participate with a NRC booth.

Thank you again for the invitation. We look forward to participating in this event.

Sincerely,

Mr. Jerome Murphy
Associate Director
Nuclear Regulatory Commission
11555 Rockville Pike
Mail Stop 031108
Rockville, Maryland 20852

Dear Mr. Murphy,

We are writing to invite you to participate in the 2013 Procurement Expo hosted by the Department of Defense's Delaware Procurement Technical Assistance Center (PTAC), U. S. Small Business Administration (SBA), and the Delaware Small Business & Technology Development Center (SBTDC) on Friday, June 14, 2013 at the Chase Riverfront Center in Wilmington, Delaware from 8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. Previous Procurement Expo's in Delaware proved to be very rewarding for both the exhibitors and attendees and we are hopeful you will give strong consideration to participating this year.

All of us are committed to creating new business opportunities for Delaware companies and supporting job growth. This Expo will help Delaware businesses understand and obtain information on how to initiate and develop business possibilities with federal government agencies. Furthermore, participants will have the opportunity to speak directly with many procurement decision makers and agency representatives from a variety of agencies through the SBA's Matchmaking. It will provide local and regional businesses a chance to better understand the procurement process and also determine whether it is an area where they want to pursue business growth.

Congress created the PTAC program to help businesses seeking to compete successfully in federal, state and local government contracting. Funded through Cooperative Agreements between the Department of Defense and state and local entities, PTACs provide a range of procurement services. There are Procurement Technical Assistance Centers in every state throughout the country. This Expo will provide Delaware and regional small businesses with vital contacts and important information to support their successful endeavors to expand and grow their businesses through the federal procurement process.

We anticipate a large number of exhibitors and business owners participating in this event so your prompt response is greatly appreciated. Please direct all responses, specific questions, or inquiries to Juanita Beauford, PTAC, (302) 831-0780 or jbeauford@del.ptac.edu.

Thank you very much for your consideration of this invitation and we look forward to your participation in this superb 2013 Procurement Expo.

Sincerely,

Jack Markell Tom Carper Chris Coons John Carney
