Greetings,

The Waste Confidence Directorate received feedback that the webcast for the November 14 afternoon scoping meeting cut off at 4pm EST. We were able to get the webcast running again after a short delay; however, if you missed the end of that meeting, you can view archived video of the meeting at <http://video.nrc.gov/>. After you open the webpage, scroll down to the table of Archived Videos. The afternoon scoping meeting is titled: Waste Confidence Scoping Meeting for the Environmental Impact Statement (Part 1). The evening meeting (Part 2) is also available for viewing.

Transcripts for the November 14 meetings are now available in ADAMS:

If you missed the November 14 meetings, please join us for our December 5 (1pm-4pm EST) and December 6 (9pm-12am EST) webinars. The information presented and format of the webinars will be the same as the November meetings. The NRC staff will start each webinar with a short presentation (view the slides here), and then we'll open the phone lines for your questions and comments. The webinars will be identical, and both will be transcribed so any comments presented over the phone will be included in the Waste Confidence docket.

To register for the December 5 or 6 webinars, please see our meeting notice (ADAMS Accession No. ML12326A911): <http://pbadupws.nrc.gov/docs/ML1232/ML12326A911.pdf>
You can also call Ms. TR Rowe at 1-800-368-5642, ext. 492-3133 or Ms. Susan Wittick, ext. 492-3187 if you have questions about the webinars.

And finally, we have updated our Waste Confidence website with some Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs): <http://www.nrc.gov/waste/spent-fuel-storage/wcd/faq.html>

Sincerely,

Staff of the Nuclear Regulatory Commission
Waste Confidence Directorate
