Mr. Struckmeyer,

Cammenga elects to not withhold any proprietary information found in the applications submitted on 12/20/12, 12/21/12, or the reply to the NRC's RAI (3/22/13) submitted on 4/24/13. Thank you for clarifying this matter.

Please let us know if you have any further questions.

Best Regards,

CJ

Mr. Karchon:

In your email below, you indicated that "Cammenga elects to not withhold any proprietary information found in either of these applications" (referring to your applications submitted on 12/20/12 and 12/21/12).

Drawings in your April 24, 2013, reply to our 3-22-13 Request for Additional Information contain the following statement:

THE INFORMATION CONTAINED ON THIS DRAWING IS THE SOLE PROPERTY OF CAMMENG AND ASSOCIATES. ANY REPRODUCTION IN PART OR AS A WHOLE WITHOUT THE
WRITTEN PERMISSION OF CAMMENG AND ASSOCIATES IS PROHIBITED.

Please indicate whether you intend these pages to be withheld from public view. If so, to make these pages non-publicly available, please note that we need further information from you in accordance with the regulatory requirements. Specifically:

- Provide a notarized affidavit to request withholding the documents from public availability, see 10 CFR 2.390(b)(1);
- The affidavit should address all five criteria for proprietary information, as listed in 10 CFR 2.390(b)(4)(i)-(v).

Richard,

Following up from our phone discussion a couple of weeks ago regarding our applications submitted on 12/20/12 and 12/21/12 to amend our E-License (21-26460-02E) and SS&D Registration (#NR-0210-D-101-E):

Cammenga elects to not withhold any proprietary information found in either of these applications. If there are any further questions regarding these submissions please email me (cj@cammena.com) and I will respond as soon as possible.

Best Regards,

CJ
