

From: Lin, Anderson [AXLe@pge.com]
Sent: Tuesday, May 28, 2013 6:51 PM
To: Lyon, Warren; Gall, Jennifer; Miller, Joshua
Cc: Swantner, Stephen R. (swantnsr@westinghouse.com); 'Stuart Cain' (sacain@aldenlab.com); Andy Johansson (ajohansson@aldenlab.com); 'Amie Humphrey Facendola' (ahumphrey@aldenlab.com); ed.shore@dom.com; SL Wiser (sl.wiser@dom.com); Robert T Jacobus; Bob Sturgill; Bowie, Russell (Russell.Bowie@constellation.com); RILEY, Jim; 'Jeffrey.Brown@aps.com' (Jeffrey.Brown@aps.com); Birke, Christopher J (Christopher.Birke@cengllc.com); Meyer, Bryan D [Bryan.Meyer@duke-energy.com] (Bryan.Meyer@duke-energy.com); jweyhmi@entergy.com; Bubniak, Jaroslav P; christopher.brennan@exeloncorp.com; Garcia, Hector M (Engineer); Baker, Steve; Bates, Al; Summy, Jeff
Subject: Industry Meeting with the NRC on Draft Vortexing NUREG
Attachments: 1978 - RHRP Cavitation.ppt; A Test Program to Address Gas Entrainment in.pptx; RHR Operating Limits Test Program.pptx; April 18 Meeting Report Final.docx; Dominion Void Testing for KPS SI Void to Anderson Lin.pptx; Alden presentation Final.pdf; Trade-Off Between Tank Vortexing Margin and ECCS Function.ppt; CCNPP Planned Modifications for Closed Industry Meeting.pdf

ADAMSAccessionNumber: ML13150A136
ADAMSVersionSeriesId:{B0355D06-A3DB-4509-87C3-21B5D4479C4A}

Dear Warren and all contributors:

Here are the final collections from our April meeting.

Thank you very much for your support of this very productive meeting we had with the NRC. With your inputs, NRC will revised the NUREG on gas entrainment due to vortexing.

Special thanks to Westinghouse for providing the meeting facility and lunch. Thanks for Alden lab to prepare the composite vortex test results and obtaining permissions from various utilities.

Regards,
Anderson Lin, Principal Engineer
Diablo Canyon Power Plant
P. O. Box 56
Avila Beach, CA. 93424

PG&E is committed to protecting our customers' privacy.

To learn more, please visit <http://www.pge.com/about/company/privacy/customer/>
