Dear,

We have indeed received your registration for Mr. Kirk, Ms. Nove and yourself as participants from the NRC.

Best regards and see you next week,

Frederik Van Wouterghem

Thanks you Frederik,

Just to be sure, I previously sent an email indicating Mark Kirk, Carol Nove and Robert Hardies would attend from the USNRC. I just want to double check that we were duly registered. Thank you.

E/70

Dear participant of the Meeting of 8&9 January,

Based on the number of participants, the FANC has decided to move the meetings of 8 and 9 January to a meeting room in the conference centre of the Federation of Enterprises in Belgium (FEB-VBO), Ravensteinstraat 4, 1000 Brussels (just 100m away from the FANC offices in the same street). This conference centre is a short walk from the central railway station (Bruxelles Central/Brussel Centraal).

More information on how to reach this conference centre can be found on this website:

<http://vbo-feb.be/en/location/>

Registration of participants for this meeting will start each day at 9h00 at the FEB-VBO offices. Only registered participants will be accepted to participate to the meeting.

A hand-out of all presentations during the meeting will be provided at the start of the meeting.

Best regards,

Frederik Van Wouterghem

Onderwerp: Doel 3- Tihange 2 RPV Issue: Detailed agenda for meeting of 8&9 January 2013

Dear all,

In attachment you can find a more detailed agenda of the meeting of Tuesday 8 and Wednesday 9 January 2013, including for each session a list of topics which will be discussed during the meeting.

For each topic, the Belgian Safety Authorities will present during the meeting their conclusions and opinions for discussion.

The meeting will take place in the offices of the Federal Agency for Nuclear Control, Ravensteinstraat 36 - 1000 Brussels, room Marie Curie 1 (ground floor). The FANC office is located 200m from the railway station "Brussel Centraal/Bruxelles Centrale", which has a direct train connection to Brussels Airport (4 trains per hour, travel time +/- 20minutes). On both days, the meeting starts at 9h30 and a working lunch will be provided in the FANC offices.

For those who have not yet confirmed their participation (or other experts from your organisation) to one or more of these 4 sessions, please send a reply by email to Ms. Nancy Dasseville (Nancy.DASSEVILLE@FANC.FGOV.BE) before Friday 4 January at the latest.

We would also like to inform you that the licensee has recently provided two additional technical documents on the following subjects:

- Reactor Vessel in Service Hydrostatic Pressure Testing
- Representativeness of the materials used for tests

These 2 documents can be found in attachment and are related to some of the topics of the meeting of next week

Best regards and also best wishes for 2013,

Frederik Van Wonterghem
