SUBJECT: No Checklist or Safety Evaluation Performed

On letter dated September 13, 2013, Agilent Technologies, Inc. requested an amendment to the referenced certificate to change their current manufacturing facility location (Wilmington, DE) to China. After reviewing the request and the information provided by the company, no safety evaluation or the preparation of a checklist for the sealed sources was found necessary. Consequently, the request for additional information was limited to confirmation of previous commitments, implementation of the quality assurance program, and labeling.
