

ecoDelaware.com

- Home
- Great Places
- Great Events
- Great Trips
- Treading Lightly
- The Delaware Estuary
- Weblinks

Great Places

Cedar Swamp Wildlife Area

- Wildlife Watching
- Trails
- Watersports
- Dog Friendly

39°23'22.27"N 75°35'11.89"W

Walker School Road
Townsend, DE 19734

Visit Website
Visit Website

Cedar Swamp Wildlife Area consists of four large land tracts totaling over 5,500 acres of wilderness near Townsend and the mouth of Delaware Bay. Before your arrival, we recommend you consult the current schedule of hunting seasons. Or, if you're ever in doubt, simply wear hunters' orange or other bright colors. Also, please be advised that wildlife areas typically keep signage to a minimum, so a compass or GPS unit may be a wise thing to pack.

Photo by the Partnership for the Delaware Estuary

Click on the marker to view address and get directions

Website produced by the Partnership for the Delaware Estuary with funds provided by the Delaware Office of Tourism and donors like you.

Website design and development by Interpret Green, a division of Talisman Interactive.