Dear Bill:

The design drawings for the Leksell Gamma Unit Model 23004, Type B, are the property of Elekta Instrument SA, Geneva, Switzerland.

Elekta Instrument SA has the above unit manufactured and assembled for them by Motala Verkstad, Motala, Sweden or by FFV Aerotech, Linkoping, Sweden. The function test on the finished unit at the factory is performed under the supervision of Elekta Instrument SA.

The function test performed upon installation of the equipment at a customer's site in the United States is also performed under the supervision of Elekta Instrument SA and Elekta Radiosurgery, Inc.

Should you have additional questions, please do not hesitate to call.

Regards,

Richard S. Grome
