SUBJECT: REVIEW OF WESTINGHOUSE TOPICAL REPORT WCAP-17573-P, REVISION 1,
"WESTINGHOUSE SMR SMALL BREAK LOCA PHENOMENA IDENTIFICATION AND RANKING TABLE" (PROJ0797)

Dear Mr. Gresham:

On April 25, 2012, Westinghouse Electric Company (WEC) submitted to the U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission (NRC) for staff review the Topical Report (TR) WCAP-17573-P, Revision 1, "Westinghouse SMR Small Break LOCA Phenomena Identification and Ranking Table" (ADAMS Accession Number ML12125A320). An audit associated with this TR was completed on October 30, 2013, and multiple requests for additional information have been sent to WEC in support of our review.

As we informed Mr. Robert Sisk of WEC on a phone call earlier this year, our progress toward the completion of the TR's draft safety evaluation report (DSER) was significantly affected by the unexpected need to reassign this review within the NRC staff. Due to this circumstance, NRC is postponing the completion date of the DSER from early March to May 30, 2014.

Sincerely,
