Genetic Engineering plans to transfer SV40 genes into E. coli cells. Research involving human subjects is already limited. And in order to ensure safety, the Nuclear Regulatory Commission regulates the purchase, use, and disposal of radioisotopes for research. Do we as a society, a medical society, have a group of persons regarded as a dominant class, because of birth, education, knowledge, held from the subjects. A group of animals or plants living together in a single environment and regarded as constituting a homogeneous unit (an) entity.
