RE: Isodose Control B.V. and Nucletron B.V. Agreement

Dear Sir/Madam:

On June 2nd, 2009 Nucletron B.V. in Veenendaal and Isodose Control B.V. in Ede, The Netherlands announced their intention to join forces and have subsequently entered into a world-wide cooperation. The two companies remain separate entities and have a joint shareholder. It has been further decided that marketing, sales and after sales activities will be combined. As a result, the parties have entered into a world-wide exclusive distribution contract whereby Nucletron will market, sell and support the entire Isodose Control product range.

Nucletron shall sell both product ranges through either its own sales subsidiaries, its representative offices or through independent distributors or agents, depending on the situation that exists in that particular country. Existing sales channels of both companies will be aligned going forward.

Effective immediately, the Nucletron B.V. branch office, Nucletron Corporation, has been authorized to assume the responsibilities for the marketing, sales, installation and servicing of Isodose Control products. Nucletron Corporation will assume all regulatory activities previously managed by Isodose Control Inc., Ellicott City, Maryland.

The regulatory contacts for registration, licensing and listing will be:
