Sandra-

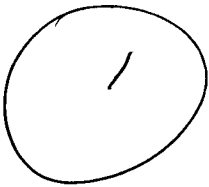

I'm glad to know that the NRC has finally developed a Tribal Liaison Department in order to "give voice" to the original peoples of this land, however, it is well documented that Racial Biases and negligence has plagued & continue to plague the sovereignty of the native people.

In chapter 1 of the tribal protocol manual, under the "Treaties" section of Historical Perspective on Fed. government and Tribal relations. It is very offensive to native people to document treaty activities, almost verbatim from a classroom history book. This is not accurately accounting for what happened with treaties and the genocide, displacement & conversion/assimilation of the native people.

It's my recommendation, that you re-write this manual if you truly wish to make relations and you truly wish to abide by the law in consulting with Native Americans. Close collaboration w/ actual Native people in re-writing these documents, as well as the future outreach and collaboration w/ Tribal Nations. Hire Natives to be liasons with our own people.

Create trust, transparency and rapport. These people have been deceived and betrayed since the white man stepped foot on this land. It's very important to really reach the native people and it's high time they got many seats at the round table. Thank you for your work - and hope it can improve to genuinely include First Nations peoples,

YOU DO YOUR THING. LEAVE THE REST TO US."
